INTRODUCTION

We are London

The Museum of London Docklands tells the story of the world's greatest city and its people, revealing the long history of London as a port from Roman times to the present day. Set within a splendid Georgian warehouse originally built to store rum, sugar and coffee, the Museum is Canary Wharf's only Grade I listed venue, offering a historic setting for your event against the contemporary backdrop of London's financial district.

Conveniently located close to the new Olympic Park, the Museum is a home to the story of modern London, capturing the unique spirit and energy of the global city ahead of 2012. Host your event in this distinctive venue and you'll be making your guests to explore London's past and be part of its future.
