Skills Plus: Managing Volunteers
Date: Wednesday 26th June
Time: 10:00 – 16:30
Location: Museum of London, London Wall

Facilitator: Elizabeth Coningsby
Trainer: Vanessa Theed

What will be covered?
This introductory session will provide a practical overview of Volunteer Management and will give an opportunity for delegates to share ideas and to talk about what works for their organisation. Case studies from Fulham Palace and Imperial War Museums will be presented to inspire different approaches to Volunteer Management.

This workshop will explain what good volunteer management look like and how you identify the key principles and apply them within your organisation. You will gain understanding about the importance of volunteers and why you need them. Do you need a strategy? The course will provide an insight into volunteer motivations and expectations, exploring why people volunteer. It will also provide clarity over some practical aspects of managing volunteers including; how to plan for recruitment, selection, induction and training and refreshing your thoughts and ideas about recruitment. Not forgetting the legal aspects; GDPR, Safeguarding and disclosures will be also be covered.

In this course there will also be an opportunity to discuss and develop different ways to support and supervise volunteers including problem solving, how to keep volunteers interested or how to say Goodbye. Finally, there will be a panel discussion from three experienced Volunteer Managers, sharing what works and what doesn’t.
