Brunel's Rotherhithe

Wednesday 7 June 2017, 11.20am

During this guided heritage trip we will enjoy a boat trip departing from Embankment pier, followed by a walk to the Island Gardens, then take a train to Rotherhithe (passing through Brunel's Tunnel) and finally visit the Brunel Museum to discover the accomplishments of Isambard Kingdom Brunel.

Meet at Embankment station (river exit) 11.20am for an 11.33am boat departure.

Friends £17, Guests of Friends £21 includes boat trip and entry to museum. Train fare not included, please remember travel passes.

Beating the Retreat

Thursday 15 June 2017, 8pm

Once a drum or trumpet call, signalling cessation of the day's fighting, Beating the Retreat is now a sunset concert and pageant of precision drill and colour with horses, cannons and fireworks. The Household Division Massed Bands and the King's Troop Royal Horse Artillery join visiting military bands from around the world.

The Queen's House

Monday 3 July 2017, 10.30am

The Queen's House is rumoured to have been a gift from James I to his wife as an apology for swearing in front of her. We will visit this sumptuous (allegedly haunted) royal residence, famous today for its extraordinary art collection. The recent subject of major restoration, it boasts 22 spectacular rooms filled with great art representing 400 years.

Meet at the National Maritime Museum for tea/coffee and pastry at 10.30am.

Park Road, Greenwich, London, SE10 9NF
