

Course Title: Finance for non-finance professionals

Date: Wednesday 6th March

Time: 13:00 – 16:30

Location: Museum of London, London Wall

Facilitators: Elizabeth Coningsby

Trainer: Arts Fundraising and Philanthropy

What will be covered?

This session covers the basics of charity finance, and develops your understanding of how to develop budgets, read balance sheets and develop the infrastructure to support your organisation's finances. We will also cover the responsibilities of charity Trustees with regards to financial management.

Arts Fundraising & Philanthropy's mission is to strengthen arts, culture and heritage organisations' resilience and sustainability by transforming their fundraising knowledge, skills and levels of success.

Who should attend?

This course is aimed at non-finance museum professionals and trustees who wish to demystify charity accountancy processes.
