

Preferred Supplier List: Floristry 2014-2016

Established in 1991 we are a high end event florist based in 'trendy' Shoreditch. With an enviable and loyal client list including Credit Suisse, Linklaters, CitiBank, HSBC, Ernst and Young, Deloitte.

We design flowers for the Art sector such as Tate Modern, Art Fund, Hauser and Wirth, Victoria Miro and many more.

Accredited at NHM for 10 years with their gold standard of design, client liaison, venue liaison, operation and H&S. All of our other accreditations are historic central London venues : Tate Britain, National Gallery, British Museum, Wallace Collection, ICA etc We are therefore used to the rigours as well as of working in listed buildings and working within an extremely tight timescale.

We have a good relationship with the London production companies and caterers : an invaluable aid to delivering beautiful and smooth running events.

Our house style is creative and natural. Our preference is to design with seasonal flowers and to show them off with drama as well as respect for their innate beauty. Many of our clients choose us for our loose, natural style which leads to an understated yet very chic look.

This enchantment of the natural world feeds into our designs and environmentally awareness. Our huge knowledge of seasonality and provenance is the biggest contributor to our green policy.

hybrid

Based in Covent Garden, London, with an additional floral design studio in Vauxhall, our creative team members apply their vast experience in design, and extensive knowledge of flowers and foliage, to produce truly innovative event floral designs.

By mixing individual elements with a strong awareness of commercial and seasonal trends, our approachable and professional floral design team will work with you to meet any brief and to create anything from a jaw-dropping transformation of a venue to more subtle floral accents.

LAVENDER GREEN Flowers

Established for over 25 years, Lavender Green Flowers has grown to be one of London's most reputable events florists, accredited at more UVL sites than any other. Starting up as a humble retail store, our love for events and the disparate nature of each one catalyzed our growth into one of London's busiest events florists, providing stunning flowers for over 1500 events last year. Whilst the size of the business has blossomed, the ethos has always stayed the same; 'we're only as good as our last job.' This keeps our feet firmly on the ground, ready to delight both new and existing clients.
